PORTLAND, Maine – A Portland taxi driver was robbed shortly after picking up two men in Monument Square and driving them to an address on Munjoy Hill.

The Robbery occurred on January 27, 2019 at 7:55 PM when one of the males asked the 69-year-old driver to stop the cab on Adams Street near Kellogg Street and then threatened him with a knife while demanding cash. The victim gave them an undisclosed amount of money before they fled on foot toward the Munjoy South Apartments. The driver was not injured.

The suspects were described as white males in their late 20's or early 30's, 5'-10" to 6'00" tall with medium length brown hair. One of the suspects was wearing a brown coat and the other was wearing dark colored clothing.

If anyone has any information pertaining to this crime they are being asked to contact the Portland Police Department at (207) 874-8575.
