Proudly serving Portland's Munjoy Hill neighborhood since 1979.

PLEASE JOIN US FOR A READING OF A CHILD'S CHRISTMAS IN WALES, SUNDAY, DEC 11 AT 1

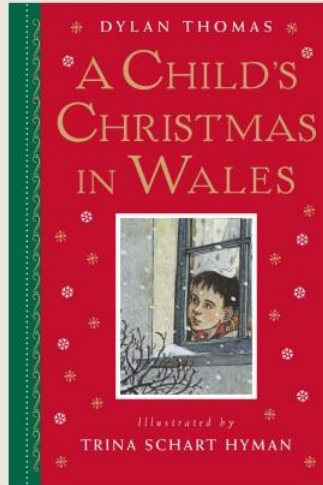

The MHNO is pleased to present this wonderful story by Welch poet and author, Dylan Thomas, read by Abraham A. Schecter. Abraham and his wife recently moved to Munjoy Hill. Abraham is a librarian and archivist at the Portland Public Library in the Portland Room. Following the reading, he will present a brief slide show of his studies while staying in the childhood home of Dylan Thomas in Swansea, Wales.

All are welcome to come to listen and enjoy tea and sweets to celebrate a Welsh Christmas. Iechyd da! (Cheers). Free and open to the public, at the Hill House (Munjoy Hill Neighborhood Organization office), 92 Congress Street.

Know Your Snow!

Snow & Ice Clearing for Sidewalks:

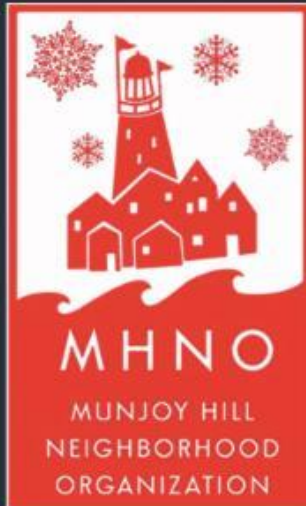

For Residents, must be cleared within 24-hours after the City completes clearing snow.

Residents & Businesses are required to clear sidewalks to the abutting property.

Take It Easy While Shoveling !

Use a small shovel: shovel many small loads instead of fewer heavy ones

Begin slowly and take frequent, 15-minute breaks

Drink plenty of water to avoid dehydration
Dress in layers, to avoid hypothermia (low body temperature) or overheating

Cover your head and neck (50% body heat lost thru head and neck)

Cover your mouth (breathing cold air can cause angina or trigger breathing problems)

Police See Increase in Bicycle Thefts: Register your Bike On-line

Janine Kaserman, Portland Police Department Community Policing Coordinator noted at the November MHNO Board meeting that she is seeing an increase in bicycle thefts. It increases the chances of having your stolen bike returned to you if it is registered with the Police Department.
